What is the Learner Support Fund?

The Learner Support Fund provides financial help to students who, without its assistance, would have difficulty enrolling on or completing a course.

Am I eligible?

- Studying for an eligible qualification
- Settled in the UK or have a pre settled status
- Claiming a means tested Benefit OR a low income. This will be based on the previous tax year's income unless there has been a change in circumstances.

Low income is defined as:

| Age | Gross income below |
|-------|--------------------------------|
| 16-18 | Household income below £25,000 |

Who is not eligible?

- Students studying a Higher Education course (i.e HND, Foundation Degree)
- Work-based learners/Apprentices
- Students studying a Full Cost Recovery course

What is the Vulnerable Bursary?

This is a fund for students who are aged 16-18, students may receive up to £1,200 per year if they fall into one of the categories below:

- In Care - if you are currently in the care of the local authority, in a children's home or with a foster family
- A Care Leaver - if you have previously been in care, i.e. have lived in a children's home or with a foster family
- In receipt of Income Support or Universal Credit
- A disabled person in receipt of both Disability Living Allowance (DLA) / Personal Independent Payment (PIP) AND Employment Support Allowance (ESA)

What can the Learner Support Fund help with?

The fund can help towards the costs listed below. You may need to make a contribution towards these costs. For successful applicants aged 16-18 years-old, help is available towards:

- The cost of transport – if you live more than 3 miles from the College or have a disability
- Course-related costs – these are determined by your course tutor
- Students who start late will receive pro-rata payments

BACS payment

In order to receive LSF payments by BACS students must have their own bank account except in exceptional circumstances where a student is unable to administer their own account. Students are able to open a basic bank account, for information on how to do this please visit moneyadvice.service.org.uk

What are my responsibilities?

- You must inform us of any changes in circumstances, such as change of course, hours or childcare arrangements.
- If you leave before you complete your course you will be required to repay all or part of your award and return any books and equipment.
- You are expected to have 90% attendance; or you are meeting the targets of your on track commitment if it falls below this we may withhold or withdraw your agreed awards.
