Initial involvement would be delivery of functional skills, Maths and English and Digital at the charity's base, to support disadvantaged and marginalised members of the community with securing employment. 6.5 Governors requested further detail on the Bristol School of Film. CE&AP stated that the college had good links with several creative and digital areas and that the aim was to set up something similar to the School of Food. Plimsoll Productions were partners. In response to a suggestion from governors that local film production companies be included in the collaboration, CE&AP noted the intention to form a consortium which would include such partners. 6.6 Institute of Technology The college had been invited to re-join the IoT plus model, working with universities and other colleges. Significant funding was available through the programme should the board agree that the college enter the collaboration.
7	FE COMMISSIONER REPORT - confidential 7.1 This item is recorded as a confidential minute. 7.2
a	C&Q PRIORITY AREAS FOR ACTION inc - Ofsted 7a.1 VPC&Q updated governors on the recent Ofsted Monitoring visit. He gave details of the

	areas considered and of the findings, highlighting that the provisional report had rated four areas 'reasonable progress' and the fifth 'insufficient progress'. He stated that inspectors had been able to see the progress made but were looking for gradual and ongoing improvement over a longer period of time.
7a.2	VPC&Q thanked governors for meeting with the inspectors – Ofsted had found that governors had a good range of expertise, used information well and challenged effectively. He noted that there had been no concerns in relation to safeguarding and offered thanks to the Safeguarding Link Governor, Keith Hutton.
7a.3	VPC&Q gave further detail on Apprenticeships, the area rated as making 'insufficient progress', noting weaknesses in: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • on/off the job co-ordination • processes and accountabilities
7a.4	He highlighted the fact that: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • overall achievement was in line with the national average in spite of a weak performance • the college worked with a very large number of employers
7a.5	VPC&Q noted these weaknesses had already been identified prior to the Ofsted visit.
7a.6	Governors expressed disappointment that the Ofsted ratings were lower than anticipated and enquired how well placed the college would be to achieve 'good'.
7a.7	VPC&Q stated that sustainable progress was being made and that the issue had been a lack of incremental and systematic improvement since 2019 for inspectors to evidence. Apprenticeships would be the focus of the Task and Finish Group.
7a.8	Governors highlighted the importance of communicating the Ofsted outcome carefully, in order not to erode the support of colleagues.
7a.9	VPC&Q confirmed that this would be carefully handled. A meeting with the apprenticeship team had taken place already and mapping of improvements required had been carried out. VPC&Q would work with CE&AP and VPCS&ER on external engagement.

PERFORMANCE REVIEW / MONITORING:

8	CURRICULUM & QUALITY COMMITTEE REPORT inc - KPIs and T&F group update
8.1	Curriculum & Quality Committee Report The Acting Chair of C&Q Committee provided an update from its recent meeting. Committee members: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • had considered and were dissatisfied with the provisional Ofsted outcome • had asked for clarity on actions that would be taken and had received some assurance • had discussed Quarterly Review Meetings and departmental RAG ratings which appeared extremely cautious • had noted that the Student Union was becoming more active and could be further supported.
8.2	The Acting Chair highlighted the very useful contributions made by the Student Governor. The HE Board was scheduled to meet in January and to consider and finalise the HE Strategy.

8.3	Task and Finish Group The Chair of T&F Group reported that: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • C&Q Committee had approved that Vocational Progression return to ‘business as usual’. It would now be monitored through the curriculum planning process • Work Experience was showing very positive progress. The dashboard would verify if this extended across the college’s provision • Apprenticeships had been disappointing. Weaknesses had already been identified prior to the Ofsted visit. • VPC&Q and the Chair of T&F Group would meet on 15 December to ensure that the right actions were in place and that these would be progressed collaboratively with all staff.
8.4	The Chair welcomed the urgent priority that was now being given to the improvement of Apprenticeships.
9	STRATEGIC PLAN VPCS&ER explained that the Plan had been presented to committees for approval. Bristol University were now included in the plan as stakeholders, this relationship would be complementary to the relationship with UWE.
